

Provisions for Students with Physical and Learning disabilities

TYPE OF DISABILITY	FACILITIES / ASSISTANCE PROVIDED
Mild sensory impairments, such as mild sight or hearing loss	Raise disability awareness among key members of staff such as teachers and first aiders, through in-house training and communication of relevant information. Allocate students to classrooms with an Interactive White Board (IWB) or a large screen to facilitate visual perception Allocate classrooms on the ground or first floor to minimise physical effort if needed. Place students close to the teacher to facilitate auditory perception.
Impairments with fluctuating or recurring effects such as Rheumatoid arthritis, Myalgic Encephalitis (ME), Chronic Fatigue Syndrome (CFS), Fibromyalgia and depression	Raise disability awareness among key members of staff such as teachers and first aiders, through in-house training and communication of relevant information. Allocate students to classrooms on the ground or first floor to minimise physical effort if needed.
Auto-immune conditions such as Systemic Lupus Erythematosus (SLE), organ specific, including respiratory conditions, such as asthma, and cardiovascular diseases, including thrombosis stroke and heart disease	Raise disability awareness among key members of staff such as teachers and first aiders, through in-house training and communication of relevant information. Allocate students to classrooms on the ground or first floor to minimise physical effort if needed.
Developmental, mild autism such as Asperger's Syndrome, dyslexia and dyspraxia	Raise disability awareness among key members of staff such as teachers and first aiders, through in-house training and communication of relevant information.
Mental health conditions with symptoms such as anxiety, low mood, panic attacks, phobias, or unshared perceptions; eating disorders; obsessive compulsive disorders	Raise disability awareness among key members of staff such as teachers and first aiders, through in-house training and communication of relevant information.